GUEST SPEAKERS-Kevin Moss and Zack each spoke about their experiences volunteering in Haiti as recent as 4 days before the earthquake hit.

-They were there with the Wesleyan Mission organization and Zack worked with an organization called wish and was there for 6 months which is part of his internship requirement with Bethany. While Zack worked with the locals to help develop their skills so they could be more self sufficient Kevin along with others ran a camp for 65 orphaned children.

-The Wesleyan Mission is operated on the island of Logonaive.

-Kevin has been there on 3 occasions and of course the need is even more critical after the earthquake. These people are on survival mode and need our help in rebuilding their infrastructure. They need skilled volunteers to train them on how to become more self sufficient in the longer term. The devastation is unbelievable and for now they live day to day.

-A very interesting presentation with lots of questions.
