-Phil took ownership of Jonah Place bed and breakfast April 2008, having moved here with his wife from Calgary where he lived for 25 years. Originally from Ontario they decided they wanted the slower friendly pace of the Maritimes and eventually settled on the Sussex business.

-Both he and his wife worked in the financial industry previously.

-Jonah place was originally built in 1884 by the Stockton's

-It opened as a b & b in 1997.

-It was recently designated as a historical property.

-They have some plans for modest expansion and renovating the old carriage house.

-Phil has quickly become involved in the community as a director for Sussex chamber of commerce and kings county tourism association as well as coaching a hockey team.

-An interesting presentation.
