Guest speaker Jason Sturgeon introduced by Rhoda.

- Jason owner of Teck Experts in Sussex spoke about his education and background before starting his own business 3 years ago. He graduated from Sussex High school in 1992 went to university for a while until he found it wasn't for him. He worked at various jobs including bee keeper until he found his interest in computers.

-He graduated from NBCC 2 years business teck and later 1 year in advanced training courses.

-His main interests are in networking and systems management.

-He then found work in Sussex at screen savers as their technician and worked there 5 years gaining considerable hands on experience in computer servicing.

-In 2008 he had the chance to start his own company which occupies the former down east arts building on Queen street.

-While servicing is his main business he also sells computers and related equipment and hopes to soon be the local reseller in this area for MAC which could be a big boost for his business.

-Jason is very customer service orientated and has established a good reputation for service locally. His business has grown and now has 2 technicians and 1 admin clerk in addition to himself.

-A very good speaker ,interesting, informative with lots of questions.

-50/50 won by Rhoda
