Guest Speaker-Bridgett Ryan, Sussex Middle School community coordinator

-Wife and mother of 2 teenagers who has lived in Sussex for 16 years, 13 of which she worked for RBC. She took her present job as a part time job which eventually turned into full time.

-She is in her 1st year in her new position following Rhoda who was the first community coordinator in Sussex.

-The Sussex middle school is open as a venue or location to different groups for meetings and community events and she helps with that as well as many other projects. These include junior achievement, foreign exchange, science and career fairs etc.

-She is involved in the breakfast club that feeds breakfast at the school to 40-50 children a day. Another valuable program is the tutoring and mentoring program. They also hope to launch a program this fall that helps students learn and experience the value in volunteering.

-Fund raising is required for many of these programs and other programs of which she is involved.

-She finished with letting us know that the Sussex middle school & high schools will represent Sussex at the Provincial Drama Festival from April 28- May 5th and they have done very well in the past.
