He has 4 children (1 girl & 3 boys). He moved to Sussex from Newfoundland in 1997. He worked with E J Cunningham when he first moved to Sussex. He then changed jobs and worked for Rite Switch Electrical for 9 years and 4 years ago he started his own business – Tremtech Electrical. He said that most of his business is done in Sussex and area. He does install alarm systems and they are monitored by Armstrong Communications. He is now a service depot for Sears and his son looks after this part of the business.
