Business Meeting

Charter night went over very well with about 30 people in attendance. Everyone agreed that the Timberland Restaurant crew did an excellent job putting on the meal.

Membership sessions were held in Moncton this past Saturday and were attended by Kim, Beverly and Roger. Roger gave us an update of what they took away from this meeting.

Image of Rotary

What are we doing with new members once we get them? Club members need to feel valuable and the club must be interesting. New club members should be involved in the various projects we have going and there should be a mentoring process for new members so they understand what Rotary is all about, locally and Internationally, as well.

There was a general consensus that the Rotary Club of Sussex's image was low because of the small turnout for regular meetings and that some members are hesitant to suggest bringing in guest speakers and/or new members because of it. Solutions to increasing, or maintaining membership of any club, is an in-house problem. I call on all the members to mark your calendars so each lunch hour on Mondays is dedicated to Rotary and for each member to submit at least one name for a prospective new membership in the next year.

Our club has also agreed to be a participant in the Christmas Parade to be held December 1, 2007. The parade will form in The Princess Louise Park and proceed to the Walmart Parking lot. Participants are required, so come on out and join us in the festivities.

50/50 draw was won by Bruce and donated back to the club
