Minute: Robert Lockhart

Rotary Foundation, EREY (see if you can find out what this means online). There are as many ways to give as there are reasons to give. The Foundation funds End Polio, Peace Fellowships, and Exchanges etcetera.

Guest Speakers: Richard Sullivan (Past Chair) and Donna Floyd (Chair) – SACF. The community just had a successful fund raiser at the high school called kids & chocolate on November 3rd. Richard was in to talk to the club on St Patrick's Day three years ago (he and his wife have been fortunate enough to have gone to Ireland since....). SACF has recently received $1,100,000 from the Forbes family towards their efforts.

They were founded in 2003 and are members of the Community Foundation of Canada who have over 170 communities involved in the membership. Sussex has a very diverse and capable board coming from all different areas both geographically and professionally. They give a total of five scholarships to the SRHS every year, the Fran Simpson and the Earl J. Cunningham families have given so they can have scholarships in their name. They have given out over $250,000 in total to over 35 local charities. They are looking into the walking trail behind RBC and mentioned that Rotary would be a good hand in helping them and other organization in getting it started. Donna informed that there are many ways to give, cash, appreciated stock, gift of life insurance & charitable gift annuity.

Their AGM will be at the Sussex Library on the 24th. They have 4 committees in total, grants, fund development, communication and investments and they are looking for more volunteers to be on those committees. They have 12 on the board and several other volunteers on the committees. They can be contacted at 433-6244 and info is available at www.sacfi.org.

Christmas Boxes – Bob Black needs to know how many we can sell so he can order product asap.

Membership – The committee has a form which was passed around and we would like it to be completed and returned by November 28th. This will make it so every member makes it their business and responsibility to help grow the membership.

Meeting Adjourned.
